

Helpful Checklist for Organizers

Please use this checklist to make sure you are prepared for the ceremony. Everything on this list is important for the ceremony to be successful.

Instruct participants to bring a journal and something to write with. If they have their own pipe and drum bring those. No water bottles or containers inside ceremony. A small totem is fine, but nothing from other ceremonies, cultures, medicines or practices. Do not bring anything of value or fragile or important into the ceremony space. Make sure they are aware of the contraindications for amanita use. Make sure they are aware they will sign a waiver. Do not bring into or use any other substances before the ceremony. The only exception to this is sacred tobacco.

- A drum or PERCUSSIVE instrument for each person
- A drummer assistant to help Dreamer with the ceremony
- Seating on the floor and chairs for some.
- A saging/ air cleansing agent made of a conifer tree like fir or cedar (no sage)
- Pipes, ash trays and propane lighters, containers to hold amanita powder
- On site sleeping arrangements
- Snacks and water available during and after the ceremony
- Purchase amanita. 110 grams for tea per 10 people. 45g for smoking per 10 people. Please use approved vendors. Lemons
- A small jar for each person to put tea servings in
- A kitchen for prep of tea plus necessary items for preparation
- A signed waiver for each person
- A small table for me to use next to where I sit, about 2 ft high and a chair.
- Restrooms, at least 2 or portable potties easily accessible during the ceremony
- An ability to control lighting for semi- bright settings and very low light settings.
- Candles for ambient lighting during the deepest part of the ceremony if possible but not necessary. Access to a fire outside for those who leave the ceremony and for follow up the next morning.
- Small table for water, lighters, towels, extras
- An assistant to help with the ceremony set up and details. An assistant for Dreamer. Facilitators who will remain sober to help with participants through the night